

The Sorrows of a Show Girl

The Sorrows of a Show Girl

by Kenneth McGaffey (?-1938)

Originally printed in The Morning Telegraph in New York, this is the story of Miss Sabrina, the show girl, and her ups and downs with the unpredictable theatrical industry and the Great White Way, the lights and glamour of Broadway. "In order to set myself right with both the public and the vast army of Sabrinas that add youth and beauty to our stage, and brilliancy and gaiety to our well known cafes, I wish to say that she is all that she should be..."- Kenneth McGaffey

Cast

Narrator: Chuck Williamson

Sabrina: Amanda Friday

Mr. Jenkins: Robert Hoffman

Audio edited by Amanda Friday

Total running time: 3:29:54

Cover design by Kathryn Delaney
Pen-and-ink drawing, c1900

The Sorrows of a Show Girl

Kenneth McGaffey

Kenneth McGaffey